"THE NOW PEACEFUL FAMILY OF GREENS WAS AT ONE TIME THE HARD FIGHTERS OF PIONEER DAYS"

By Harry P. Green, Johnstown, Ohio.

The following account which I am about to relate, is one handed down by my father - the late Benjamin Green - who died in the year 1913 at the age of eighty-one years. If living now, he would be one hundred years old. It is regarding the early settlement of Licking County, Ohio and of its hardy pioneer stock who settled near Johnstown in Monroe Township, during the earlier part of the eighteenth century. Father stated that several of the original Greens who had moved from near Lancaster in Fairfield County, had built and erected homes here. But there were one or two of the brothers who had not come up, still living farther south or beyond Lancaster a few miles. About this time (around 1812-20), one of the brothers named Charles came up to visit the ones who had settled here. Now, Charles was a man who was only ordinary in stature, weighed about one hundred fifty pounds and of a peaceful disposition when sober. But if drinking, he was the opposite in temperament and would fight the Devil if challenged for a "scrap." After spending some time up here visiting with his brothers, he concluded to return to Lancaster. It seems he was a man who, liked to hunt coon, as he was accompanied on this trip by a coon dog which was very much attached to him. Everything went well with Charles and the dog until they reached Lancaster where they dropped into a tavern - which all the early towns afforded - for rest and refreshments before going on a few miles further to his home. There was a drunken Dutchman at the tavern, whom Charles had never seen and who like all drunken men, was usually getting into trouble. It proved so, in the story I've started to tell. Whiskey was plentiful in those days and all taverns sold it over the bar-without hindrance or license. As soon as Charles entered the tavern, he walked over to the bar and ordered a glass of whiskey. The drunken Dutchman sauntered up to the bar and said to Charles, "Can't you treat a friend." Charles replied, "You are no friend of mine; and if you were, I would not treat you, as you are already drunk." This made the drunken Dutchman mad; and as he started to leave the bar, he gave Charles' hound a vicious kick. This started a quarrel between them. Charles told him if he kicked his dog again, he (Charles) would give him a sound thrashing. The Dutchman told him in his drunken way, he could not do so. Charles, who when mad would use profane language, on this occasion, said he could lick any damn Dutchman ever in Lancaster. Charles had no sooner said it than the Dutchman turned on his heel, left the room, and went to a butcher shop which was owned and run by another Dutchman named "Rosabaw" who at that time was the "Bully" of Lancaster and had never been whipped. He was a large, powerful man, weighing over two-hundred pounds. Charles did not know him, as he had not become acquainted with the people of Lancaster at that time. But he soon met him with no introduction from the drunken one who had gone and was bringing him to the tavern for a fight.

Charles in the meantime, had ordered another glass of liquor and started down the street towards his home. He had not gone very far from the tavern, when he met the drunken Dutchman, accompanied by the bully, Rosabaw, who had his sleeves rolled up and his coat thrown over his arm, going toward the tavern. No sooner had they met each other than Rosabaw said to him, "Are you the man who swore you could lick any Dutchman in Lancaster?" Charles, taken by surprise at so short a notice, hesitated for a moment to tell why he said it; and said, "Yes." But this was as far as he got in his explanation why he had said it; for before he could say, "I beg pardon," Rosabaw dropped the coat from his arm and struck Charles a powerful blow between the eyes, which broke Charles' nose and blinded him for several minutes. Rosabaw did not stop at this lick, but began striking in earnest. Charles who was yet blinded from the blow, began backing away from him, bleeding like a stuck hog; and kept backing away for some distance. Rosabaw followed and kept striking at him, but was not successful; as Charles guarded his face as best he could. He had backed away several rods from where the fight commenced when he backed into some hewn timber which had been prepared for a new building. This, he fell over; and Rosabaw over with him. No sooner had they clinched each other in the fall than bulldog fighting commenced in earnest. Describing it as told by the author, it is said Charles grabbed Rosabaw around his neck with his arms, held him tightly, and began spitting blood from his broken nose into Rosabaw's face and eyes. This was done in the course of the fight while flat on his back, neither of them getting hurt but little in the procedure.

It is said that on this very day, one of Charles' brothers and his wife, were on their way to Johnstown or vicinity with a wagon load of household goods and had stopped for an errand in Lancaster. This brother's name was Hezekiah who was called "Kye" for short. It is said he had a coarse heavy voice like unto the roar of a lion. His wife, while waiting for him to return to the wagon, heard of a big fight going on nearby and inquired who was involved. Someone told her it was a man by the name of Green, fighting Rosabaw. She ran and got her husband, and the two ran down to the fight; by which time most all the men of Lancaster had gathered at the spot. "Kye" gave out a yell for the men to stand back and he rushed into where the men were fighting. He began to curse his brother and told him to "get out of there." Just as soon as Charles found Kye was there, he took courage and kicked himself loose; got onto his feet; and hit Rosabaw one lick with his bare fist, which knocked him cold. The crowd carried Rosabaw away and worked a long time with him before he came to himself. It is said that ever afterward Rosabaw was stone deaf from the lick; both ear drums being punctured; and that ever after- ward, he would never fight.

So ends the story which I have heard my father tell on many and many occasions of his early recollections of the early pioneer family of Greens who originally came from Virginia to Lancaster,, and then on to Johnstown, Ohio. Here, many of them - descendants of Rignal Green, Sr. - are still living.

History of the Greens in Licking Co. Ohio

Green, Charles, George, Mahala

Few if any traces of Mound Builders exist within it's limits (Monroe Township), but the Wyandott Indians once lived here in considerable numbers. They built a town called "Raccoon Town" a mile or more above Johnstown on Raccoon Creek where they resided until 1807 when Charles and George Green purchased their possessions and thereafter occupied and cultivated the lands. The Greens who bought out the Wyandotts were Virginians and accustomed to frontier life. Mahala Green, daughter of George and Diana Green born in the autumn of 1807 was the first white child born in the County. She subsequently married Basil Butt. Mrs. George Green, yet living in this township at the age of 92 is the mother of 17 children and rejoices in one hundred grandchildren, seventy great grand children. The organization took place at the residence of George Green, who with his wife and Rignal and Charles Green and their wives constituted the first members of the organization. Green, Noah, farmer, post office, Johnstown was born May 11, 1811 in Monroe Township. He is the third child and first son of George and Diadema Green, who were the first settlers of the township. Mrs. Green, who is still living, gave birth to the first white child born in the township. The subject of the sketch is the oldest living male child now living in the township of Monroe, May 31, 1830, Mr. Green was married to Miss Olive Crawford, by whom he has had two children, Lavina (born, married, and living in Coles County, Illinois. She was born April 12, 1831 and Margaret, born June 29, 1833 and died January 23, 1879. Mr. Green has seen the country grow from it's infancy, and is yet a well preserved and vigorous man, able to take a hand in the harvest field which he did during the harvest of 1880. The mother of the subject of this sketch was Diadema Green, whose family were the third who moved into Monroe Township. Washington Evans was first, Charles Green second and the third was George Green, husband of Diadema Green whose maiden name was Willison, was born on the eleventh day of January, 1788. She was married when about the age of sixteen years. Her husband came to Monroe Township about 1807 and purchased eighty acres of land, paying at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, located in Raccoon town, and on which the Indians had cleared from three to five acres. Great quantities of relics have been found in this vicinity. Grandmother Green states that she remained alone three weeks in the midst of about three hundred Indians whilst her husband was cutting and threshing his crop of wheat near Lancaster, Fairfield County. She says there were three Indians, of whom were called Indian Joe and Indian George, the other she does not recollect his name, came to kill her husband and his brother Charles; her husband taking down his rifle on their approach, went out to meet them but instead of their showing any hostile disposition they were inclined to be remarkably friendly, using the following language: "Indian no kill white man, Indian white man's friend." She speaks highly of this tribe of Indians, the Wyandotts, and delights in telling incidents that occurred in an early day. She is the mother of seventeen children, fourteen of whom lived to become mothers and fathers. She is making her home with her youngest daughter. She still owns about thirty acres of land, so she is not dependent upon any one for a subsistence. History of Licking County Monroe Township, Page 678

Green, Corwin, C., farmer and stock dealer, Johnstown, was born June 18, 1841, in Monroe Township, where he has always resided. He is the son of Rezin and Parmelia Green and grandson of Diadema Green, who was the third family who settled in Monroe Township. He married Ann M. Beaver, September 27, 1866. She was born September 11, 1847, in Monroe Township, Seneca County, Ohio. They have three children, Grant C., born June 23, 1868; Clyde B., born May 13, 1871; Earl R., born August 3, 1876. All bright promising boys. They own one hundred thirty-three acres of land under a high state of cultivation. They possess genial natures and are respected by their relatives and acquaintances. Obituary of Mrs. Diademina Green:

Mrs. Green, the venerable widow of the late George Green, died at her residence in Monroe, August 24, 1881, at the great age of 92 years, 7 months and 13 days. She was a native of Berkeley County, Va. Mr. Green bought the Indian Village called Raccoontown, situated above Johnstown, and it's site became a part of his farm. George Washington Evans (who settled there early in 1806) was the only white man living in what is now Monroe Township, when Mr. And Mrs. Green settled there. Their oldest daughter, (Mrs. Mahalla Butt) was the first white child born there, and is still living in Monroe Township, at the age of 74 years, having been born in 1807. Mr. George Green died in 1863. Mrs. Green was the mother of 17 children, 14 of whom became fathers and mothers, and 9 survive their aged mother. Her posterity number 66 grandchildren, 125 great-grandchildren and 26 great-great-grandchildren. She had been in communion with the Methodist Episcopal Church more than sixty years, and was held in high esteem for the many virtues and christian graces that adorned her character. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. Watson

Notes for PETER WILLIAMSON, SR.:
Biography of Peter Williamson

Several articles have been written about Peter Williamson, his ancestors and his descendants in the past. However, based on records that have been found regarding his service in St. Clair's War and in Fairfield Co. and Licking Co., OH some of the statements in earlier articles seem to be questionable. In the 1850 Monroe Township, Licking Co., OH census Peter was listed as 86 years old and born in VA. This gives him a birth date of about 1764. However, it is not known where he was born in VA if that is, indeed, his birth state. Both Peter Williamson, Sr. and Jr. paid taxes in Berkeley, Co., VA in 1782. Only one Peter Williamson was in the 1787 tax list. There was a Peter Williamson family from New Jersey in Berkeley Co. at that time. Our Peter Williamson was too young to have been in the 1782 tax list so it is difficult to know just who the Peter Williamson might have been in the 1787 tax list. One of our Peter's applications for bounty land was made 19 Apr 1851 before Justice of the Peace James Johnson in Licking Co., OH. Peter was listed as 86 years old giving him a birth date of 1764 or 1765. He testified that he was an Orderly Sergeant in the company commanded by Captain William Lewis in the regiment of United States Troops commanded by Colonel Clark in the war of the United States against the Indians in the year 1791 under General St. Clair. He said he enlisted in Hagerstown, MD on or about the 16th of May 1791 for a term of six months and remained in active service until on or about the 4th day of Nov 1791 and was present at the engagement with the Indians. He was wounded in the right leg so severely that he was confined at the hospital at Fort Washington for thirty days and at the end of the time, still being unable to travel, he remained that winter in Kentucky until, in March 1792 (when he was able to travel), he started for his home where he arrived in April 1792. Unfortunately he didn't say where "home" was. Fort Washington was present Cincinnati., OH.

Peter received 80 acres of land in IN as a result of this application. Warrant 33.418. This land is in Newton Co., IN and was assigned to Joseph Evans in May 1853. (Joseph was a son of Jonah Evans who had once lived in Monroe Twp., Licking Co., OH but had moved his family to Noble Co., IN by the time this land was sold.

Peter appeared before the mayor of Johnstown, Monroe Twp., Licking Co., OH 11 Jan 1858 to apply for more bounty land. His age is listed as 94 years, again this gives him a birth date in 1764. He gave the same information that he gave in the earlier application regarding those who were his officers in St Clair's War. He gave the same day of enlistment but it appears that he said he enlisted in Harisburg, Maryland rather than Hagerstown. He said he was discharged at Fort Washington in Nov or Dec 1791. He had an honorable discharge which had been lost. He was making this declaration for the purpose of obtaining the Bounty land to which he might be entitled under the Act, granting Bounty land to certain officers and soldiers who were engaged in the Military Service of the United States passed Sept 28, 1850. He declared that he received a warrant for 80 acres of land which he disposed of and could not now control and had not received any other or made application.>p> Apparently no bounty land was issued as a result of this application. Perhaps he was not entitled to more or perhaps Peter died before it could be acted on. See page 441 of "The GREEN Tree" by Robert M. Green.

Jonathan Williamson, a grandson of Peter, indicated that Peter and John Williamson had served in the War of 1776. Nothing has been found to date to prove this statement. Jonathan stated that Peter's father John was born about 1735 but he does not say where John was born. He indicated that John was a brother of Hugh Williamson who was in command at the massacre at Gnadenhutten in 1782. However, it was David Williamson who was in command there and his father's

name was John Williamson, son of Samuel Williamson. This family was in PA. No relationship has been found between this family and that of our Peter Williamson or his father.

Jonathan Williamson said that Peter's father John married Peggy Aunen, dau. of Gen. Joseph Aunen of Ireland. He mentioned that they had 3 sons, Charles, John and our Peter. Nothing has been found to prove this. However, Peter named on of his sons Joseph Annin Williamson which would SEEM to point to some relationship to a Joseph Annin/Aunen.

On 29 Jul 1801 Peter Williamson married Rebecca Green, dau. of Regnal Green, in Fairfield Co., OH. A Peter Williamson was a Justice of the Peace in Fairfield Co. in 1810 and 1811 for he performed some marriages during that time. A Peter Williamson, b. 1768 from Berkeley Co., VA was living in Fairfield Co. from about 1806 to Jan 1812 (when he died) so it is assumed he was called Peter Jr. and our Peter Williamson b 1764 , was called Peter Sr. When Peter Jr. died in 1812 Peter Williamson, Sr. witnessed his Will along with Ann Cross in Fairfield Co., OH. It is ASSUMED that the Peter Sr. was our Peter Williamson. Jonathan Williamson's article said that Peter brought his family from VA to Johnstown, Licking Co., OH in 1812. However, it appears that Peter was in Fairfield Co., OH in 1812 not in VA. In an article about Joseph A. Williamson that appeared in the Newark Advocate newspaper (Newark, Licking Co., OH) in 1883, it said that Peter move his family to Monroe Twp., Licking Co., OH 1818 when Joseph was 14 years old. This may be true for Peter Williamson paid taxes on several parcels of land in Fairfield Co., until 1819. We may never know the actual date they arrived in Licking Co. but we do know they were living there by the 1820 census. A John Williamson family was living next to them at that time and it is possible that this was John and Deborah Green Williamson and their family. It is not known who this John Williamson was. If he was Peter's son, Peter apparently had an earlier wife we are unaware of or it may be that John Williamson was a son of Peter's supposed brother Charles. John moved on to Franklin Co. by the next census.

In 1820 Peter and Rebecca's family consisted of 2 males under 10 (namely James 1804), and one who was listed as 16-18 and also in the 16-26 category. The latter one would have been George b Dec 1802. There were also three females in the family other than Rebecca Green Williamson. They were all in the 10-16 category. We know daughter Sidney was born in 1808 so she would have been one of those females. However we do not know who the others might have been. Jonathan Williamson said there was a daughter Sallie who was the wife of William Green and the mother of William Warren Green b 1818. If this is correct she would have been gone from the home by 1820 census. Peter and Rebecca are said to have had a daughter Rebecca also but if she is the female named Rebecca age 28 living with Peter in the 1850 census she was born about 1822 (after the 1820 census).

A history of the Williamson family written by Judd Williamson., another descendant of Peter's, says Peter and Rebecca had 4 daughters but he doesn't name a Sallie. He says they were Siddle (Sidney), Cynthia, Becky, and Mary. Judd made many errors in other families in his history so one cannot assume that these names are correct but they are possibilities. However, nothing is known about a Cynthia or a Mary Williamson. Because the Licking County Courthouse was destroyed by fire in April 1875 many marriage records that would prove useful in researching the Williamson family were burned. From deeds we learn that Peter Williamson of Monroe Twp., Licking Co. bought land in that township 30 Aug 1827 from the heirs of Oliver Bigelow for $155. His purchase contained 89 acres more or less and was on the border of Monroe and Jersey Townships south of Johnstown. It is described as being in Range fifteen, Township three, Section four in Licking Co., in United States Military Lands. It being lot number seven in the second range of lots in said section. Witness to the sale were Jacob Green and Morgan (Vol. R pg. 3) In February 1838 Peter sold part of that land (20 and a half acres) to his son James for $100. Both Peter and Rebecca signed the deed and it was witnessed by Rebecca Williamson (Presumably their daughter. This would indicate that she was old enough to be a witness and hence would have been born before 1822.) and B. S. Cross. (Vol. GG pg. 146). In Nov 1843 Peter and Rebecca sold more of their land (14 acres) to their son James for $50. Rebecca signed her name Becca Williamson in this deed. It was witnessed by B.S. Cross and Rees McClelland. (Vol. PP pg. 105-196) In Feb 1849 only Peter signed the deed when he sold six acres to son James Williamson for $150. (Vol. 54 pg. 534) This indicates that Rebecca must have died between Nov 1843 and Feb 1849.

On Jun 6 1850 Peter sold 10 acres to Annon Williamson for $20 (Vol. 57 pg. 440) and on 25 Jun he sold sixteen and a half acres to James Williamson for $245 which the deed indicates was the residue of Peter's 89 acres except for 10 acres which had been sold to Anon Williamson, 6 acres to B.S. Cross, and fifty six and a half acres to James Williamson (Vol. 57 pg. 211) There was no deed for the six acres to B.S. Cross prior to that time but in March 1856 Peter sold 6 acres to Lucinda Cross, B. S. Cross' widow, for $75. (Vol. 71 pg. 538 Peter and Rebecca are said to be buried on their property along with 21 other members of their family in unmarked graves. Of interest is the deed for Rebecca Williamson from James Q. Hughes in Mar 1851. This is presumably Peter Williamson's daughter. She paid $ 175 for twenty five acres of land in Jersey Twp. This land would have been south of the land owned by James Williamson at that time. James Williamson was a witness to that deed along with James Johnston. A Rebecca Williamson b 1833, d. 1853 is buried in Jersey Twp., Licking Co. If this is Peter's daughter Rebecca the birth date has either not been copied correctly or is in error on the tombstone.

Known children of Peter and Rebecca Green Williamson were:
George b. Dec 1802 d. Feb 1880 m. Sena Cross and Mary Evans
Joseph b. Aug 1804 d 1899 m. Hopie Randolph and Rachel Hartsock

From his gravemarker we can place Regnal's birth year as 1787, however, a Regnal Green Jr. is in the Berkeley Co. Virginia tax records in 1789 and 1791. This would place his birth around 1768. Is it possible that the Regnal Green in Licking County is a son of one of Regnal's boys. Or could the 1768 Regnal be a son of William Green Jr. Perhaps he died just prior to his father. This requires more research.

Notes for JACOB GREEN:
7 Dec 1818, George Green, while paying his own property taxes for Licking Co., Ohio also paid three dollars tax on a stud horse for Jacob Green.

24 Sep 1817, Jacob Green witnessed an Indenture when Elisha Willison sold land to George Green.

Some researchers don't believe that Jacob is a son of Regnal Green because he was born in Maryland. It is quite likely that some of Regnal's children were born in Maryland - the Green property was only across the Potomac from Washington Co. MD and there was a ferry operating within 2 miles of the Green plantation. Many members of the Butt family remained in Maryland and Sarah Butt Green may have been staying with other relatives when giving birth to Jacob. I don't think we can dismiss him yet. Given Jacob's birthdate, he could also have been Regnal's grandson through sons Thomas or Charles, however, when Jacob married in 1819 in Fairfield County, Thomas was already in Ashland county and Charles was in Licking County.

Served in War of 1812 under Capt. Hurshour who was under Major Dorson. Served from 16 Feb to 16 Apr in 1813 or 1814 according to an affidavit of Jacob's dated 18 Apr 1871 - was at Upper Sandusky guarding government stores and discharged in July 1813 or 1814. Notes for NANCY GREEN:
Not certain that Nancy is a daughter of Regnal.

7. JOSEPH³ GREEN (DINAH² BUTT, RICHARD¹) was born Abt. 1726 in Maryland, and died Bef. 1776.

Notes for JOSEPH GREEN:

The wife of Joseph Green was probably the Mary Green found in early Berkeley county tax lists. She had a John Butt living with her in the first tax list in 1785, so she may have been the widow of a Butt when she married Joseph. There is a William Green from Ohio co. (now Brooke Co.) WV who died in 1798 and was buried on Hunter's Run in Fairfield Co., Ohio. William was with the Green party, headed by John & Ruhama Green when he died. William left an estate file in Brooke WV. This is a likely candidate for the son of Joseph Green.

Child of JOSEPH GREEN is:

i. WILLIAM⁴ GREEN, b. Abt. 1750.

8. SARAH³ GREEN (DINAH² BUTT, RICHARD¹) was born Abt. 1730 in prob. Maryland, and died Aft. 1800. She married RICHARD BUTT Bef. 1765, son of SAMUEL BUTT and ELIZABETH SWEARINGEN. He was born Abt. 1730, and died Abt. 1799 in Berkeley Co., Virginia.
